Morning Bradley,

I attach my Matters and Issues in relation to the KCAAP & a Guidance Note. I think one day may be sufficient. However, the Council are probably best placed to advise bearing in mind some discussions are on-going, in particular with the Environment Agency and WCC.

The Guidance Notes contains a number of blanks in which your contact details, web site addresses, dates etc need to be inserted. Could you please fill in the relevant parts before it is published. Can I suggest that the last date a representor can indicate that they now wish to be heard at the hearings is the first day that the Council offices is open after Xmas - will that be 2 January? In my previous e-mail, I suggested that Statements should be received no later than 14 January, allowing 2 weeks for myself and the Council to consider any responses. Could you run this past the Council please?

Kind regards,
Claire
Sherratt

Allocations and Policies DPD. The same will follow shortly for the Kidderminster Central Area Action Plan. This will form the basis of an agenda for the Hearing sessions. It may well be that some of the areas for discussion will fall away once Statements of Common Ground have been prepared or some additions made once I see the Council's list of main modifications. It remains in a draft format so that the Council may have the opportunity to make any comments prior to it being published on the website. It incorporates the key areas from those representations from representors who have indicated they would like to be heard at the hearing sessions.

I think it is unlikely that 8 days will be required. 3 days may be sufficient for the SAPDPD based on my Matters & Issues.

If my Matters and Issues can be published on the web site by this Friday then we could ask for statements to be submitted by Monday 14 January -giving over 4 weeks to respond to allow for the Xmas period. This would give 2 weeks for myself and the Council to consider any responses. Would this be acceptable to the Council?

I will prepare a Guidance Note before Friday.

Kind
regards,
Claire
