Thank you.

I have also received a request from Mr Angus Martin of amec Environmnet & Infrastructure UK Ltd. representing, Homes and Communities Agency/Department of Health/Coventry & Warwickshire Partnership Trust, who have requested that they want to change from written submission only, to attend the oral hearing.

I have sent them the published documents, and I now attach for your information the revised list of attendees to be published on the website. This is an amended list and the original list still remains published for comparison.

The representation is based on SAL.PDS1, which is being examined during the hearing in any case under Matter 10 – Green Belt.

I trust this is all in order

Kind Regards

Bradley

Thanks for this Bradley - I do not consider it is necessary for them to attend the hearing sessions.

Regards,
Claire

Claire

West Mercia Police and Hereford & Worcester Fire Service (noted on the attendees list as West Mercia Constabulary) have withdrawn their objections and therefore no longer wish to attend, following discussions on 11 December with the Council under Statements of Common Ground.

Their willingness to attend should you deem it beneficial to do so still stands.

With regard to the above, Do you consider it beneficial for them to attend in any case?

Kind Regards

Bradley
